What and who is Herb Fuzion Handcrafted Honey?

Herb Fuzion Handcrafted Honey is locally sourced honey, handcrafted into many flavors by Lanise and Rylee Middleton, mother and daughter duo aiming to educate consumers about the advantages of honey and provide creative ways to enjoy it.

How it all began?

- in 2018, just as Rylee began to attend daycare, she developed this terrible cough. I knew it was due to her being exposed to “daycare” germs. At 13 months old there is no recommended medication to assist with a cough, runny nose, etc.
- An all natural medication seen at a local pharmacy that deemed safe for children under 5
- Grandmom spirit saying to make my own

OUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS OVER THE LAST 3 YEARS

- We are the only organization in Pennsylvania providing resources and practicing language justice for small business early childhood education programs and families.
- We helped advocate for access to the Philadelphia Pre-K grant applications in both English and Spanish.
- Our organization highlighted the need for language accessibility, prompting other organizations to start providing live translations in their meetings and on their websites, thereby identifying and addressing gaps.
- We became partners with William Penn Foundation and created the LatinLift Fellowship support the Latino community and strengthen the teacher pipeline.
- We expanded our reach from Pennsylvania across Pennsylvania.
- We increased the development and availability of Spanish language resources.
- We became an approved provider of education by the Pennsylvania Department of Education, with over five PQAS-approved trainers delivering professional training in both English and Spanish to meet Keystone STAR high-quality program standards.
- We launched a membership portal to provide templates and resources that support coaching and mentoring within LEJ organizations, focusing on childcare programs and teachers, and offering valuable discounts from our partners.
- We successfully navigated and increased representation for the Latinx community during the Harrisburg Caravan visit.
- We helped establish the ECE Latinos Advocacy Group.
- We became the only organization in Philadelphia to host the Hispanic Literacy Festival, breaking barriers and increasing literacy at home and in schools with multicultural books.
- We provided essential resources such as diaper banks, cribs, book drives, back-to-school supplies, and meals.
- We are now the only organization in Philadelphia dedicated to these comprehensive efforts.
